

The Weekly Gazette

NEW SERIES—VOL. 7. NO. 19.

LANCASTER, OHIO, THURSDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 23, 1852.

WHOLE NO. 1409

The Weekly Gazette.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING.

GEORGE WEAVER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

John H. Wright, Printer.

OFFICE—Tallmadge Building—Third Floor—Main Street—South Side.

TERMS—$1.75 per annum in advance.

Thursday Evening, Sept 16, 1852

THE RELIGIOUS TEST.—Held in all Rounds.

The position of the New Hampshire Democracy upon the religious test in their constitution, has been so well ascertained from the records, that the party, not being able to raise themselves up, are trying to pull others down to their own level. Gen. Scott's liberality is so well known that they dare not attempt the game with him. But having hopes in another quarter, they commenced with our candidate for the Vice Presidency. They made their charges without proof and are now compelled to back out or repeat the lie. Many of them prefer the latter course. They first commenced with North Carolina, a Whig State, but the clause had been abolished. So that Gen. Scott was not affected. They then attacked Mr. Graham and stated that he opposed the amendment. But it turns out that, in 1833, the question of revising the constitution was agitated and among other amendments the abolition of the test was proposed. Mr. Graham was elected to the Legislature as an advocate of the revision. A law was passed and an address issued to the people advocating the amendments, which was signed by W. A. GRAHAM and others. In that address was the following paragraph:

"The thirty-second article of the constitution excludes from civil office all who may deny the truth of the Protestant religion. This has no practical effect for the plain reason that there is no tribunal established by the constitution to determine a man's faith. It is an odious badge of prejudice, which the enlightened liberality of the present day should scorn to wear. It is an unjust imputation against the Catholics of this State to attach to them any such disqualification. The patriotism, personal virtues and ability, and the disinterested public services of a single individual in the State, would be falsified the ill-faith that are implied by this paper restriction. How far it is consistent with Protestantism itself—how far it is compatible with the bill of rights, which declares that all men have a natural and inalienable right to worship God according to the dictates of their own conscience, we leave to that bigotry which would perpetuate this stigma."

But this is not all. The call for a convention failed and the records show that Mr. Graham continued to be the advocate of the abolition of the test until the constitution was finally amended and the clause stricken out.

Can Gen. Pierce clear his skirts so well? Can New Hampshire Locofocoism maintain its innocence? While mouthing "Democracy" and prating about "equal rights and privileges," why do they not show their faith by their works? Why have they not long since followed the example of Whig North Carolina and stricken the odious test from their fundamental law? Their majority has been greater in proportion and more regular than in the latter State, and yet they remain where they were a half century ago. The name is nothing. Any one can preach in the name of Democracy and profess to cast out devils, but their works do not sustain what they pretend to believe, their preaching is hypocrisy and their professions end in nothing.

Our arguments are not addressed to religious prejudices. The question, as we stated yesterday, is merely one of political right so far as it has any application in this canvass, and we refer to it, not because bigoted Christians live in New Hampshire, but because men there who preach Democracy, do not practice it and are not what they profess to be—friends of "equal rights and privileges."

LOREAN COUNTY.—A correspondent of the Cleveland True Democrat, writing from this county, says:

"The old Hunker Democracy will probably carry this Congressional district. The Independent Democracy will probably carry the county, and the Whigs will give General Scott a plurality vote in the county, or certainly General Scott will have a majority over Pierce."

This is the calculation of a political opponent and tallies with other information from the same county. In 1848, Cass beat Taylor 826 in Lorain, a heavy vote being cast for Scott in Knox, is all we ask.

CAYNE IN.—A Knox county correspondent of the Ohio Statesman, desiring to play the brag game and not having impudence and recklessness enough for a correspondent of such a sheet, writes that Old Democratic Knox will give Pierce and King 800 majority. The beauty of the boast consists in the fact that the same county gave Cass a majority of nine hundred and eighty. A gain of one hundred and eighty for Scott in Knox, is all we ask.

KEEP IT UP RECORD.—That when Attorney General Fugh alluded boastingly to the fact that Gen. Scott and his brave three hundred men, at Queenstown Heights, surrendered to thirteen hundred British and Indians, his Locofoco audience applauded him; and kept it upon record, that when the same misfortune was published during the last War, the Hartford Convention and Blue Light Federalists rejoiced. Who are like them?

CHARGE.—In the 2d Congressional District, J. Scott Harrison, Esq., having received the nomination for Congress, he has resigned his place upon the Electoral ticket, and Judge James Saffin has been appointed to fill the vacancy.

Five editors were defeated for office at the late Iowa election.

IT IS ALL UP NOW.—The Nashville Union, the leading Locofoco paper of Tennessee, has found it out at last. The thing is up. The South is betrayed. Where is the bottled up indignation? Pull the cork. The Union has relieved itself.

Gen. Scott is himself a native of Virginia, and in that State lived, and we believe still lives his relatives. Gen. Scott's wife also lived in Virginia, and there lived her relatives, and there also was her property. And yet, with all these multiplied inducements to remain in Virginia, we yet see him removing from his native State and taking up his abode among the bitterest of her enemies. Can that man be said to love the South or her institutions, who, with every inducement of interest and feeling to remain in his own section, voluntarily severs all these ties and tents in hostile lands?

For Gen. Scott to remove his residence into another State, was a bad enough. But to do this, when his relatives lived in his native State, was shocking. To do this when his wife had lived in Virginia, was scandalous. To do this, when his wife's relatives lived there, was outrageous. To do this, when his wife's property, negroes and all, whom Gen. Scott would not own, was situated there, was traitorous. But more than all, to do this against all these inducements, we have no word of indignation sufficiently strong to express our disapprobation. What right had Gen. Scott to move to New Jersey? What right has any one to change his residence? We really pity the Union. But where did its editor come from?

FEDERALISM AND DEMOCRACY.—From the Baltimore Patriot we learn that in his speech in that city—Gen. Cass gravely asserted that the Whig party and the old Federal party are one and the same and argued from his assumed premises that the Whig party were opposed to the war of 1812.

Now it would be well for Gen. Cass, in his next speech, to mention the following important facts recorded upon the pages of history:

"The man who stood up in Congress most able and eloquent in advocating the declaration of war against Great Britain in 1812, and who was then regarded as the leader of the Democratic party, was named Henry Clay, and he is the same who was afterwards the founder of the present Whig party."

The man who on the battle field during that war achieved more victories over the British forces than any other American commander, was none other than Winfield Scott, the present candidate of the Whig party for the Presidency.

It is also well known in this connection to remember that Mr. Buchanan, who, for a long time received the largest number of votes except Cass, in the Locofoco National war of eighteen hundred and twelve, a man of eighteen hundred and twelve, a man of the year 1812 delivered an oration wherein he abused the leading Democrats of that day, and said: "If he thought he had a drop of Democratic blood in his veins, he would open them and let it out."

This is a pretty party to talk about Federalism—Ohio Statesman.

And it should also be remembered that the National Intelligence, the central organ of the Whig party, was probably the warmest and most efficient advocate of the war of any paper then published.

And likewise should it be remembered, that men can be found now, not connected politically with the Whig party, but supporting Pierce and King, who follow the example of the Blue Light Federalists and rejoice at contemptible allusions to the reverses of the American arms, because that same Winfield Scott commanded at the time.

Need we be more specific?

GEN. SCOTT AS HE IS.—The New York Tribune, summing up an able argument for our candidate, says:

"We do not support Gen. Scott because he has fought well for the country, but because his whole career has evinced devotion to her welfare and capacity to advance it. His military achievements have been steadily paralleled by his wisdom, energy and prudence in the various civil trusts from time to time devolved on him. In removing the Cherokees, in calming the nullification aspersions, and in dealing with the troubles on our Northern and Northeastern boundaries, he has evinced the same high qualities as in the battles of the Niagara frontier and the conquest of Mexico. He has done all whatever has been given him to do, and we have faith that his Presidency will prove no exception to the rule. If it be true that soldiery is a bad trade, let us get him out of it into a better. It would be a pity to waste such abilities in any vocation but the worthiest."

THE WAY THEY TREAT THEM.—If an Irishman has independence enough to bolt at the British free trade, Pierce ticket; and go for that great patriot and friend of his country, Gen. Scott, the Statesman gets out of temper, and pronounces all such persons "Irish Tories." At a late meeting in Butler county, where Mr. Edwards, an Irish speaker, was addressing an Irish audience, a prominent Locofoco, named Kinder, after having an altercation with the speaker, left the house, saying: "We've got a d-d sight more Dutch and Irish than we need—let them go, we don't want them."

So says the Butler county "Scott Battering" of the 7th Inst. Such is the toleration of these Locofoco leaders. Such is the abuse heaped upon foreigners if they dare to vote for anything but the Locofoco ticket. Go ahead, gentlemen.—O. S. Journal.

SOME OF THE OPPOSITIONS OF GEN. SCOTT SPEAK LIGHTLY AND CONTENTIOUSLY OF THE traits of benevolence in his character which have been given to the public. Now, when we see a brave officer devoting his own life to the relief of the widows and orphans of the men he commanded, who were killed in battle, (as Gen. Scott did), and that is a strong reason for honoring him! It is a recommendation with us and would go far to cover a multitude of faults in any man. A truly humane man, however, generally, a truly humane man. Scott has always shown that he is the one and the other.—Alec. Gaz.

GOOD PRICES.—Mr. Charles Sampson, of Boston, purchased at a fowl exhibition, at that city, the other day, two pairs of grey Chittagow fowls, the oldest of which he gave $50, and for the youngest $25.

INTERFERENCE IN MASSACHUSETTS.—The whole number of persons committed to jails and houses of correction in the Commonwealth for intemperance, for ten years, ending Sept. 1st, 1852, was 31,438.

TELEGRAPHIC INTELLIGENCE.

Arrival of the Niagara.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 15.—The Niagara arrived at 12 o'clock, with 110 passengers. Fisheries excitement over. 600,000 ounces of gold arrived at Fort Phillips.

The French Minister of Commerce informs the Havre merchants that Government will not protect them in loading guano at Lobos.

Bishops Vadderbilt and O'Conner arrived at Rome, with resolutions of the Catholic Convention at Baltimore.

It is said that Louis Napoleon is about publishing a defence of himself against the aspersions of the English.

The cholera has made its appearance in several towns in Germany.

Accounts from St. Petersburg say the Russians had burnt three Circassian villages, as chastisement.

England.—Politics in England quiet. It is reported that Col. Law commander of troops at Newfoundland, is about being appointed to the Governorship. Harvest progressing satisfactorily throughout the kingdom. Potato rot in Ireland disappeared.

France.—Gen. Blahine died. French troops not to be withdrawn from Rome. It is rumored at Paris that Louis Napoleon has transferred his attentions to the daughter of Prince Gattorick. India has taken the oath of allegiance to the President. King Siam also sent his felicitations.

Italy.—An English Envoy arrived at Rome on the 24th, to express the friendly feelings of his Government to the Pope. A conspiracy has been discovered in Sicily. The centre of operations was at Castro Gimovanni. The conspirators succeeded in corrupting some of the troops.

Siberia.—Great activity in the Austrian navy at Venice. Two propeller frigates ordered to be built in England.

Liverpool.—Cotton.—Moderate business the past week. Sales declined among the spinners, exporters and speculators—average quantity taken by each. Market consequently inactive. Notwithstanding light imports and the small quantity now on the way, prices have only been maintained with some degree of steadiness for the current quality, for those most in regard, say L or 2 1/2 pence—common grades being heavy and neglected. Quotations same as last week.

Gen. Scott.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 15.—Gen. Scott arrived here this evening on his way to Blue Lick Springs, Kentucky, for the purpose of selecting a site for a Western Military Hospital. He was received at the city by members of the Whig Central Committee and numerous delegations of whigs, by whom he was greeted with much enthusiasm. During the evening members of Scott and Graham clubs and many citizens called upon him, and were cordially received. During the night he will be serenaded by Blue's band. He leaves to-morrow morning for Pittsburgh, arriving there on Friday, and will be absent from Washington 12 days, returning by way of the lakes and West Point. Generals Wool and Lawson accompany him.

FROM MAINE.

BOSTON, Sept. 14.—Additional returns from Maine confirm the defeat of Hubbard; he will lack, from present appearances, 4000 votes. Chandler and the Maine law coach 2000. Three Whig and three Democratic members of Congress. The Democrats probably have a large majority in the House. Liquor Law large majority in the House.

Southern Convention.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Sept. 14.—Geo. M. Troupe, of Georgia, was nominated for President, and General Quitman for Vice President. Convention unanimously ratified the nominations. Appointed electors, and adjourned.

FROM VERMONT.

BOSTON, September 15.—The returns of 218 towns show the Whig Governor defeated by the people. 96 Whig and 83 Opposition Representatives. 23 Whig and probably 5 Opposition Senators. Meacham and Tracy, Whigs, elected to Congress—Sabin defeated.

Fast Trotting.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 15.—Tuesley, a roan horse belonging to Samuel Kelly, carried off the purse of $1000 yesterday, in a race with Taylor and Black Ball over Hunting Park course. Time—best ever made—2:28, 2:29, 2:30.

Shocking Accident.

READING, Pa., Sept. 15.—Four young girls, working in a cotton factory, while walking on the railroad track yesterday evening, were run over and killed—two instantly, the others died shortly after.

FROM MASSACHUSETTS.

LOWELL, Sept. 16.—The Free Soil Convention of this State met to-day. Largely attended. Horace Mann was nominated for Governor, and A. Walker for Lieut. Governor. Chas. Sumner made a speech, after which an electoral ticket was formed. The Coalition Democrats are said to be dissatisfied with the nomination.

FROM GASTON.

BOSTON, Sept. 16.—Geo. Hood, Free Soil Democrat, of Lynn, nominated for Congress in Rantoul's district, is openly opposed by the Hunkers. Considerable excitement.

The Portland, Maine, Advertiser says the Senate has 68 Whig majority; House 37 Whigs and 68 Dem—26 districts heard from.

FROM BUFFALO.

BUFFALO, Sept. 16.—A collision yesterday on the Erie Railroad, between Dunkirk and Hornellsville. Nine passengers and one brakeman were killed, and thirty badly injured.

FROM NEW JERSEY.

TRENTON, Sept. 16.—A large Democratic mass meeting held here yesterday. The State Convention was also in session and elected an electoral ticket. Proceedings harmonious.

FROM CONNECTICUT.

HARTFORD, Sept. 16.—The Democratic State Convention met yesterday and selected an electoral ticket. Proceedings harmonious.

Mass Meeting.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 15.—Fully 20,000 people assembled yesterday at Oakland woods to celebrate the anniversary of Gen. Scott's entry into Mexico. There was a display of fireworks last evening, and several speeches were delivered.

FROM WISCONSIN.

KANONSA, Sept. 17.—Daniel Wells, of Milwaukee, nominated by the Democrats of the first Congressional District, and John B. Marcy, Pon du Lac—second District.

Great Fire in Havana.

HAVANA, Sept. 15.—Last night we had a very large fire, burning from Gillett's store to the "Ohio Star" office. H. I. Day's dry goods store, H. A. Swift, Insurance office, Brown, 120, boot and shoe store, Russell & Co., dry goods store, E. T. Rich, H. A. Swift's hardware store, "Seafinell" office, H. A. Swift's dentists office, large dwelling houses, Gillett & Co.'s boot and shoe store, three or four groceries, and private dwelling houses, but little property saved, most of the sufferers lost all. The damage is variously estimated from $50,000 to $60,000 dollars, no lives lost. Our town presents a very deplorable appearance.—Much credit is due the ladies, who worked nobly, as they always do, on such occasions.

FROM NEW YORK.

ALBANY, Sept. 17.—Nine anti-slavery arrested, supposed to have been concerned in the outrage on the Shaw premises.

[For the Ohio State Journal.]

ATTENTION!

To the gallant old Soldiers of 1812, and the brave fellows who served in Mexico:

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the bloody field of Lundy's Lane, where bayonet crowded bayonet, steel clashed with steel, and the rattle of musketry, and the roar of cannon and of many waters?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the plains of Chippewa where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Wellington?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out, in your own and the blood of your enemies, the disgrace cast upon the American name and American arms by the surrender of Hull?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten Vera Cruz, where you met and drove from the field the veterans of Mexico?

SOLDIERS! Have you forgotten the heights of Queenstown, where you washed out